

KING MAUI MARLBOROUGH REGIONAL RESERVE SAUVIGNON BLANC

The name of the island Māui originated from one of the four main Hawaiian Islands. King Māui honours the great Maori demigod, a bold and talented fisherman who legend says discovered the islands of New Zealand.

ABOUT THE REGION: AWATERE VALLEY:

Awatere Valley is a subregion of Marlborough situated on the coast of New Zealand. The coolness of this region is responsible for making light and crisp wines.

TASTING NOTE:

The Awatare Valley is a sub region of Marlborough situated on the coast on New Zealand. The coolness of this region is responsible for making light and crisp wines of which this King Maui Sauvignon Blanc is a perfect example. This wine is herbaceous and tropical with a refreshing palate followed by a zesty and mouth-watering finish.

WINEMAKER QUOTE:

A range for every occasion, featuring Sauvignon Blanc in lighter alcohol, zero alcohol, premium, and subregional tiers, along with regional Pinot Noir.

VINTAGE: 2024
VOLUME: 750ml
VARIETY: Sauvignon Blanc
ALCOHOL %: 12.5%