KING MAUI LIGHTER MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC

The name of the island Māui originated from one of the four main Hawaiian Islands. King Māui honours the great Maori demigod, a bold and talented fisherman who legend says discovered the islands of New Zealand.

ABOUT THE REGION: MARLBOROUGH:

Marlborough is known as being one of the best wine producing regions in the world, known especially for its Sauvignon Blancs. It is located in the north east corner of the south Island of New Zealand and accounts for over 60% of the countries grape production. The particular mix of soils combined with the daytime sun and significantly cooler nights create wines with intense flavour and delicacy.

TASTING NOTE:

With a pale straw and green hue, this light-bodied, lower alcohol Sauvignon Blanc is fresh and crisp with notes of tropical and citrus fruits. At only 85 calories per serving its ready to be enjoyed time and time again.

WINEMAKER QUOTE:

A range for every occasion, featuring Sauvignon Blanc in lighter alcohol, zero alcohol, premium, and subregional tiers, along with regional Pinot Noir.
