KING MAUI ZERO MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC

The name of the island Māui originated from one of the four main Hawaiian Islands. King Māui honours the great Maori demigod, a bold and talented fisherman who legend says discovered the islands of New Zealand.

ABOUT THE REGION: MARLBOROUGH:

Marlborough is known as being one of the best wine producing regions in the world, known especially for its Sauvignon Blancs. It is located in the north east corner of the south Island of New Zealand and accounts for over 60% of the countries grape production. The particular mix of soils combined with the daytime sun and significantly cooler nights create wines with intense flavour and delicacy.

TASTING NOTE:

This King Maui Sauvignon Blanc has 0%* Alcohol but is still full of delicious flavour. Providing light and crisp green and citrus fruit flavours, with hints of herbal green on the nose.
